

Indiana's law severely reducing the number of telemarketing calls we receive has been tremendously effective and appreciated. It got really disgusting to get calls every dinner time. That is our family time and it is so much better now. Please do not do anything that would reduce the effectiveness of Indiana's law. Thank you.